WARNING: HONKLIGHTS HAS BEEN PROVEN TO BE EXTREMELY ADDICTIVE TO RATS, MONKEYS, AND MEMBERS OF GOLDEN HORDE.

Ask your doctor if Honklights is right for you. Exposure to Honklights may increase your risk of honking like an idiot, welping free ships on pointless crusades into random space, referring to yourself as "Top Goose," or any number of other goose-related symptoms.

Some readers of Honklights may experience an intense desire to find their nearest pond, strip naked, and float about while occasionally chasing joggers and people with stale bread.

If you find that you suffer from any of these symptoms after reading Honklights, continue to read Honklights. It's probably fine.

If it's not fine, HONK, Honklights, and the Office Of Mother Goose are in no way responsible for your care or treatment. But it's probably, you know, fine.

Please Let Me Come Home.

I am very sorry for whatever it is that I did. Very, Very sorry.

Please stop forcing me to sit in the same tiny corner of space, harassing random corporations for eternity. I haven't seen my family in months.

At first it was funny picking off miners endlessly, or showing up every twenty minutes to plink away at somebody's station, but now I'm very tired of listening to the same people panicking in local when I uncloak. I'm begging you, please let me leave these poor dumb pubbies alone.

The pixels I am getting paid are not worth the boredom.

Oh no! Vegas King, mobile eSports broadcaster and Guardian of EMPIRE eSports, is trapped with Badran, the monster of Syndicate Space! Help him get to the warp gate so he can deliver his haul!

A mysterious hero is saving square rocks across the galaxy. Who could it be?

Do YOU know about any Square Rocks? The 'Intumescent' type...the ones with souls.

They're being enslaved by alliances all throughout New Eden.

If you let us know of a captive intumescent belt that needs liberation, we will intervene.

If your very alliance is the one unfairly confining a belt of free-spirited Square Rocks, you can free the rocks AND yourselves!

No more 24/7 guard duty.

No more local callouts.

No more hourly miner belt spawn checks.

Send those rocks to Jial! Let them see the galaxy!

GAME ANNOUNCEMENT

| Game Maintenance Announcement

Dear pilots of New Eden,

EVE Echoes will undergo maintenance on 5/20/21 at 08:00(UTC+0) and will take approximately 120 minutes to complete, followed by an immediate game breaking glitch, a panicked hotfix in response to the glitch, an additional subsequent patch to fix the things the hotfix broke, and then a reasonable amount of time where we can watch you accidentally autopilot into null space on the big screens in the cafeteria while we laugh and call you names. During this time, players will be unable to log in to servers. We kindly ask for your understanding and patience during maintenance.

New Features:

1. Custom art assets for the winners of the Corporation Video Contest have been replaced with images scraped from a website called “Fruit Jams And Jellies Of Switzerland.”
2. Audit timers for Higgs Anchor Rigs have been greatly reduced.
3. Three new chat channels are automatically enabled: Help, Extra Help, and Help With Help. These channels are all the same color as the corporation channel, in order to simplify the chat UI. These new channels can be turned off at any time by finding and completing unique challenges within special null space encounters.
4. Outposts can now be equipped with standard mining lasers.
5. Audit timers for everything but Higgs Anchor Rigs have been increased.
6. Some modules will now require that the pilot complete one or more captchas to activate.
7. The Jita ITC has been relocated to J015092 for your convenience.
8. Chat has been fully expanded to its maximum height for all pilots. The option to minimize chat now requires an Omega Clone activation.

Fixes:

1. Sentry guns at gates will no longer give pilots advice about finding someone nice to settle down with to “make your mother happy.”
2. Items stored in destroyed outpost hangers will no longer appear inside [OTG] hangar 2.
3. Full screen ads for “Raid: Shadow Legends” during warp will no longer go on for longer than warp time, requiring that the pilot wait until the end of the ad to minimize it.

One of the biggest drawbacks to RP in game I've found is not being able to trade special items. I do a bit of slave trading, but the only way to move people (refugees, tourists, etc.) from one character to another is by dropped loot after a ship is destroyed. I wanted to turn one of the Corp hangers into a library but none of the books in game can be put in a corp hanger. [I] held a ritual PVP contest and wanted to give the winner an Alliance Cup Trophy, but no, can't do that.

I just find it all frustrating and don't understand why these items are not tradable, there is no game balance issues with being able to trade them.

[KULT]Pilgrim

Dear Pilgrim, it must be frustrating that this game doesn't support your slave trading role-playing fantasies. Keep that chin up!

PS I know what a nihilist is. Honk may not know, but weaponizing social causes in the name of a space game is absolutely Nihilistic behavior.

PPS Da space game is a nihilistic game because the morals reflected within are grey, consequences are practically nonexistent or regarded as tragic comedy, and there is no baseline moral behavior.

LETTERS TO THE POND

After a lot of head-shaking, rolled-eyes and a fair bit of laughter I feel obligated to educate you about some things.

First, the Rule 34 Corporation is not a member of the KTF Alliance, their name is specifically derived from the philosophy that the internet has a video/meme about anything...whether it's NSFW or otherwise. They are 4Chan users, Furrries, and internet trolls. R34 simply holds Blue Status with KTF.

Second, calling KTF a bunch of Nazi's for being allied to an alleged Nazi is no different than calling Italians or Japanese Nazi's...they were, after all, allied to Germany in the Second World War. I would expect a Veteran who actually served in a capacity greater than a Weekend Warrior for a Services Support Company to know these simple facts...that you cannot make or understand this distinction affirms that you are, unfortunately, not a veteran worth any sort of respect. As an Operator, you disgust me.

Finally, you're incapable of controlling yourselves much less your members. McHuge appears to ignore anything said to him publicly...and here's my proof: [Image attached]

[KTF] SathenGor

Big McHuge has been appropriately McChastised. Let us know if he does it again. We rely on people like you to keep him McHonest!

Also, thanks for the education. We had no idea what "Rule 34" meant because we are geese and many of our ponds lack access to high speed broadband!

TACTICAL ARMY SCOUT GOOSE DELUXE

Please just leave me alone.

In the last few days I've lost everything I've done in this game. Everything.

Everything I've built, everything I spent countless nights awake working on, countless conversations I've had for diplomacy, all gone.

[LABS] DrFrozenFire

No.

Good luck with your Nebularium thing though! How's that going?

HONK

Cant [sic] believe I made an actual reddit account LMAO

Yes we love racism, and any/all offensive jokes not my problem ure [sic] all 40y olds and playing mobile vidya while having kids and then crying someone SPELLED n word vertically in chat.

There is no demise [r34] still stands and is still in syndicate[nkvt main base] 3 people quit the game tho realizing ure [sic] all boomers and washed up white people. We are the most diverse NA corp ingame [sic] and listening to white people yelling racism is so dumb I cant [sic] even explain it.

We aren't new to syndicate we all came together at nkvt at game launch it was honk that came way later. Sad to see people quit but the game community is really not for anyone fun and sorry but being in an alliance where u have to watch what u say really made playing the game that much more boring. HE kicking us out was a matter of time kek and now im just spending my time bullying them till my omega runs out(47 days) theyre so bad I havent lost a single ship yet and I got almost 10b in ships on 3 alts -_-

This community is way too pc and washed up no wonder the main game eve is dead af

/u/imaginereditacc

(presumably [R34])

Editor's note: I just quit appending [sic] after a while.

We can all tell that you feel strongly about your racism! Have you considered not being a Nazi? Things didn't go super great for them originally, and it might not be the best career path! Good game, imagereditacc! Honk you later!

HONK

Straight up 8 got no ships left and only 1mil in the wallet, I really needed that cargo, I'm completely ***ed now, hope you're happy. Y'all are bithces, pick on small targets cause u [sic] can't fight anything worth while. You and your 4 man gang of ***

Demonescent

Oh no! You should ask your alliance for a free ship to replace the one you lost!
